

Introducing Wonder 2.0

Meet the new Wonder, White Label & Primary made for Indie, Hip Hop and Electronic music fans.

Wonder is a platform for music discovery — a place to easily follow the best new music as soon as it's released. Our curation process, a combination of human and tech, allows us to sort through thousands of tracks from indie, electronic and hip hop artists releasing on Soundcloud every day. Today, we're pushing our charts a step further and continuing to support artists at all levels with the release of Wonder 2.0, White Label for web and Primary.

The new Wonder is just for Indie

Wonder is now a platform exclusively for indie music discovery. Wonder has always been synonymous with indie music, so we wanted to create an experience that better supports the artists who have defined Wonder from the start. If you've been a Wonder user since we launched in 2014, we can't wait for you to check out the new and improved experience.

WHITE LABEL

Hip Hop has a new home with White Label

You may already know White Label, our free iOS and Android app, charting the best new hip hop tracks released on Soundcloud daily and conversation happening around those tracks on Twitter. We've now merged Wonder's hip hop data with the White Label app to enhance the best new music discovery platform for hip hop heads — now on web.

PRIMARY

Electronic fans unite under Primary

Primary is our new electronic music discovery platform. In order to better support the electronic music genres and electronic fans, we've created a platform dedicated to sharing the best in electronic, house, ambient, dance, techno and bass music.

Features

Each of our music discovery platforms is powered by the same set of features that have made Wonder so great!

Discover new music first

Engagement on Soundcloud is monitored every hour, allowing us to highlight the best in new indie, hip hop and electronic music before it breaks big on other music charts.

Listen to 'More Like This'

Our instant playlist feature now makes it easier than ever to create new playlists based on any song in our charts.

Star new music you love

Want to save a track to listen later? Add tracks you discover on Wonder, White Label and Primary to your Soundcloud collection.

Share discoveries with friends

Support the artists you love by sharing what you're listening to with friends on Twitter, Facebook and Tumblr.

Take the charts with you

Our new music charts are now mobile responsive, so you can take them anywhere you like to listen to music.

Explore our advanced music data

A tool for everyone from A&R to artists to bloggers, our advanced music data helps you discover trending artists by genre from the past few hours, weeks or year.
